

STATEMENT OF FAITH

Below are several samples of Christian statements that can be included at the beginning of your will if you wish. Select one or more of these or write your own.

1. I [name], of [address], realizing the uncertainty of this life, but with confidence in God, and trust in His Son, Jesus Christ, who died for my sins on the cross, and rose again to justify me and give me eternal life, do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament.

2. I [name], of [address], believing in the providence of a loving God, grateful for the many blessings received from His beneficent hand, and trusting in the certainty of salvation through my Lord and Saviour, do hereby make this my last Will and Testament.

3. Gratefully acknowledging the living God as my heavenly Father, and trusting His Son as my Lord and Saviour, and the Holy Spirit as my Guide and Comforter, I, [name], of [address], do hereby make this my last Will and Testament.

4. I, [name], of [address], gratefully acknowledge my loving Lord and Saviour; and desire this statement of gratitude to be my final statement on His behalf, as well as recognition of His beneficent ownership of all things. I do hereby make this my last Will and Testament.

5. I, [name], of [address], being grateful to my God and Redeemer for His supreme sacrifice on my behalf, claiming the promises of His soon coming and looking forward with great anticipation to eternal life with Him and my loved ones, do hereby make this my last Will and Testament.

6. I [name], of [address], do take this opportunity to state to my loved ones and anyone else who may read these words, that, in Christ's strength, I have tried to live as God has given me light to live. I realize that I have made mistakes but they are all confessed and covered by my Lord's forgiving grace. It is my great desire to spend eternity with my Saviour and with my loved ones. In view of the fact that life is brief and uncertain, I do hereby make this my last Will and Testament.

7. In gratitude to God for what He has done in my life and to glorify Him, I wish to return to His cause a portion of the blessings He has given.
