Put forth extra exertion to attend the gathering of God's people. Brethren and sisters, it would be far better for you to let your business suffer than to neglect the opportunity of hearing the message God has for you. Make no excuse that will keep you from gaining every spiritual advantage possible. You need every ray of light... You cannot afford to lose one such privilege. 6T, p.39.

From the President ...

In the days when God's people were called a nation rather than a church, they were instructed to come together from all across the land to worship God three times each year. "Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD, the God of Israel" Exodus 34:23 NV. God recognized the importance of bringing His people together for worship. "At these yearly assemblies the hearts of old and young would be encouraged in the service of God, while the association of the people from the different quarters of the land would strengthen the ties that bound them to God and to one another" Patriarchs and Prophets, page 540. This plan for regular assembly lasted as long as Israel remained God's chosen people.

When God called His remnant church into existence He led them to establish a similar plan for encouraging the scattered flock and strengthening the ties of His people to one another. These modern assemblies are called "Camp Meetings." Much like the yearly feasts of Israel, camp meeting is a time to put aside the cares of the world and focus upon the blessings of Jesus' love while renewing our ties with brothers and sisters from distant places. What a blessing camp meeting is to those who come to seek our God and His fellowship! "As the children of Israel celebrated the deliverance that God had wrought for their fathers, and His miraculous preservation of them during their journeys from Egypt, so should we gratefully call to mind the various ways He has devised for bringing us out from the world, and from the darkness of error, into the precious light of His grace and truth" ibid., page 540.

Camp meeting is a time to put aside the cares of the world and focus upon the blessings of Jesus' love while renewing our ties with brothers and sisters from distant places.

It must have been important to the welfare of His people to come together, for God commanded that all of the men of Israel assemble themselves together three times each year. In an agricultural society, they were to spend eight days in March/April, one day in mid-May, and eight days in September/October away from their homes and lands. "With those who lived at a distance from the tabernacle, more than a month of every year must have been occupied in attendance upon the annual feasts... We sustain a loss when we neglect the privilege of associating together to strengthen and encourage one another in the service of God. The truths of His word lose their vividness and importance in our minds. Our hearts cease to be enlightened and aroused by the sanctifying influence, and we decline in spirituality..." ibid., page 541.

One of the amazing promises of the Bible is given in connection with God's instructions to attend the three annual feasts. "I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your territory, and no one will covet your land when you go up three times each year to appear before the LORD your God" Exodus 34:24 N.V. That promise was made to people living in the Middle East! You know the attachment the Jews and the Arabs have to their land. Yet God, in effect, said to His people, "You'll take their land from them and drive them out. But when you come to worship Me, they won't even want to try and get the land back again." What an opportunity it would be for their enemies to reclaim their land while all the men of Israel were off worshipping. But God promised to watch over their needs!

Today we take time from our busy schedules for camp meeting. We come to worship and fellowship. We come to strengthen our ties with believers from across the province and beyond. And God is just as willing to look after our interests today when we come to worship Him as He was for His people of old. Put God to the test and watch Him take care of your needs as you come to worship Him. We'll see you at camp meeting!

new strength and courage there I find;
Then from this quiet place I go prepared to face a new day with love for all mankind.” Ralph Carmichael

Annual Treasurer's Meeting

July 5, 9:00 a.m.

Lower Lodge, Foothills Camp (during camp meeting)

Editorial

A philosopher once said that "you can have anything you want, you just can't have everything you want." How true that is. Life forces us, whether we are aware of it or not, to continually make choices, because we cannot have everything we want. For example, a student can't have good grades without studying. In order to study she has to take time, time when she might easily find something far more exciting to do. So, she can have good grades, she just can't have good grades and party every night, too. In order to have a strong spiritual character one must spend time studying the Word of God and practicing its principles. Happy kids require focus and attention and stimulating fun from a parent, not a television while the parent does something else. Good marriages require time for talking, walking, laughing, and deep sharing. A clear conscience requires giving up choices that go against the conscience. If I take the time to practice, I can learn to play an instrument.

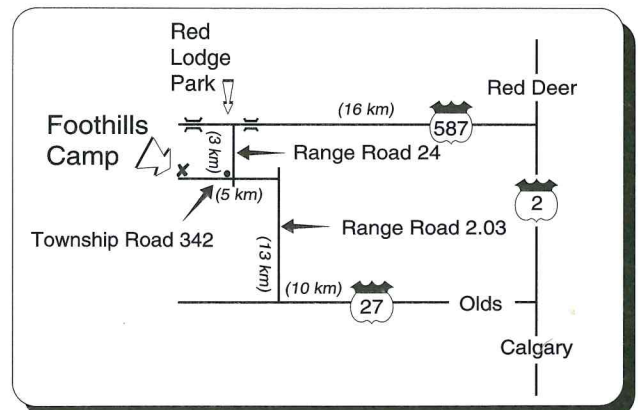

Notice that everything is a choice of how to spend our time. I reap the results of how I spend my time. I can't say that I want to learn to play the piano, but spend my time reading instead. I must choose. It's not that reading is bad, it's just that if piano practice is the "anything" I'm after, then some of the other "everything's" like reading will have to be adjusted to fit my goal.

The ultimate "anything," of course, is heaven and salvation. As great as salvation and the grace of God are, there are a lot of other distractions to get our focus off of heaven. Paul calls them weights that hinder us as we run, and sin that easily trips us. Hebrews 12:1. How's your focus? Are you enjoying the "anything, or are you still trying to pull "everything" along with you?
